

Jaggy Locks Up Game

Kendall Jagdeosingh helped the Puerto Rico Islanders pull out a 3-1 win over the Rochester Rhinos on July 24th. The Islanders held a 2-1 lead late in the game. They were receiving immense pressure from the Rhino attack, but Jaggy was able to break through and score the third goal for the Islanders, locking up the win.

Kendall Jagdeosingh was also a member of the Puerto Rico Islanders team that won their opening match in the CONCACAF Club Champions League. They defeated the Los Angeles Galaxy 4-1 in their opening match, thoroughly dominating the team with the best record in MLS. The game played at the Home Depot center is the first-leg of a two-leg elimination round. The Islanders are the reigning champions of the Carribean having won the Carribean Futbol Union (CFU) Club Championship in May, which is how they qualified for the tournament. The tournament is designed to find the best club in the CONCACAF region which encompasses North America, Central America, and the Caribbean.

Roosevelt Bouie Pro Basketball Exposure Combine

The Roosevelt Bouie Pro Basketball Exposure Combine was a huge success. 25 participants showed up to the four-day event, to put their skills on display for Flavio Fioretti and Roosevelt Bouie. The participants came to the camp at Forsyth Country Day School from all over the country, some players came from as far away as California, Texas, and New York. Some of the players had previous European experience, while other did not. However, they all made an incredible effort, and showed immense amounts of talent. Flavio Fioretti, an assistant coach and General Manager of Cantu in the Italian First Division, coached the players throughout the event, and thinks many of them may have futures in European basketball. The Combine showcased the talent of these individuals, as well as their ability to work as a team. The Combine was extremely successful and we are already planning next year's Combine. The 25 Participants at the camp were Will Adams, Jonathan Battle, James Crowder, Rahshaun Davis, Terrence Dill, Thomas Douglas, Jermaine Ferguson, Jay Free, Brandon Gatson, Phillippe Harris, Tizzo Johnson, Terrence Jones, Robert McGriff, Stoney Polite, Stefan Charles Pope, Landon Quick, Octreyvius Roebuck, Danny Sanders, Garrett Schmidt, Michael Smith, Matt Sossamon, Bless Spencer, Donald Stevenson, Robert Williams, and Remi Yusuf.

NPSL Final Four Weekend

The National Premier Soccer League hosted their final four in Madison, Alabama from July 29- July 31st. The final four had the champions of the Western, Midwestern, Northeastern, and Southeastern regions, leading to the culmination of the league with a champion of the NPSL which is the fourth division of the US Soccer Federation. Sacramento Gold defeated Chattanooga FC 3-1 in the final of the NPSL championship game. The league formed in 2002, and has been adding regions until they reached their current format in 2008. They invited MLF Sports' Heather MacKenzie to speak at the weekend event to share her knowledge as a sports agent.

Matias Schnorf

Matias Schnorf, a former member of the Swiss U-21 team, is teaming with MLF Sports. He has played for FC Winterthur in the Swiss Challenge League, which is the second division in Switzerland. He is a talented central defender who can challenge for balls in the air and make quality challenges. He can also provide excellent service from the back, helping to start a counter attack. He is seeking to play in the United States, and is represented by Dietmar Wendorff, an affiliate of MLF Sports who is working in Germany.

Sunday Adegbile on Trial

Sunday Adegbile, who has looking for an opportunity to play professional soccer since immigrating to the United States last year, was recently on trial to the Austin Aztex. MLF Sports is helping Sunday, allowing him to continue his dream of being a professional soccer player. He had a good experience with the team, but suffered an injury to his kneecap late in training on the second day of his trial causing him to miss the rest of the trial. Unfortunately for Sunday the injury cost him an opportunity with the club.
